DIRECTIONS TO THE OLD DAIRY FROM BRISTOL

By car

Take the A4 out of Bristol, through Saltford and enter Bath on the A36 Lower Bristol Road.

Continue past the BMW garage on your left. At the Sainsbury's garage turn right at the traffic lights into Brougham Hayes.

Follow Brougham Hayes over the rail bridge and take the first right into Livingstone Road.

You will see a hardware store called Graham. Melcombe Road is immediately after the store - turn right into Melcombe Road - the big red building on the hill is The Old Dairy.

By train

The nearest major train station is Bath Spa. Taxis are available outside. Allow 10-15 minutes travel.
